

Lisa Jayne's ongoing
Creative Art Courses

All courses are delivered personally by Lisa Jayne, a qualified, highly revered art teacher and accomplished artist. Lisa Jayne has taught art at highly regarded private schools and is recognised for her ability to identify and harness the natural creativity within everyone.

Each course is operated within Lisa Jayne's private studio set within a beautiful converted stable, on an old working farm, well off the beaten track into the delightfully peaceful Oxfordshire countryside.

All facilities, including refreshments, materials, equipment etc are provided. Accommodation is available to suit all tastes and budgets and help is available in locating somewhere to suit your preferences, if required. Please request help when making your booking.
